

Attention Choral Directors

You are Invited to the California All-State Music Education Conference

February 18-19, 2011

For more information about this new unified conference please go to www.calmusiced.com

With sessions specifically aimed at
Elementary, Middle School, and Developing High School Choirs

Concert/Workshop

An interactive concert where rehearsal techniques are shared and questions are asked.

Peg Hutson with students from Valley Oak MS.

Anna Hamre- guest Clinician.

Building the Young Voice

Exercises and warm-ups that build support, characteristic tone, blend, and pitch awareness.

Kathryn Smith-guest Clinician.

Class Management Roundtable

Learn from the experts on how to keep your students focused and how to deal with difficult students.

John Sorber and Mel Carrillo of the Visalia School District-Moderators.

Where are the Guys?

Tips on recruiting boys and keeping them in your program. When to have gender specific groups and when to combine them. And what about the changing voice?

Peg Hutson-guest Clinician.

Survival 101

Learn how your colleagues are surviving the world of NCLB, AVID, Support Classes, and the budget crunch. Learn how to advocate for your program and use community resources. Libby Romani, Music Supervisor of the Visalia School District, and Russ Sperling, VAPA Supervisor in the Sweetwater District-Moderators.

Remember the Standards?

Tips on incorporating sight-singing, and aesthetic valuing in your curriculum.

Karen Garrett-guest Clinician.

These Songs Always Work!

Teachers share songs that have been winners year after year. Printed list of all songs and publishers will be available to all.

Why attend the California All-State Music Education Conference?

- Friday and Saturday only. Only miss one day of school.
- Only $85 registration fee.
- More exhibits to visit.
- Informal sessions where you can ask questions.
- No sessions that want you to buy anything.