A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Rodger Guerrero

Welcome (back) SCVA members! Whether you are a new or a veteran teacher, welcome (back) to the choral organization whose primary purpose is to serve you. Welcome (back) to choral music magic. Welcome (back) to the meaningful experiences that you and your singers will create together. Welcome (back) to an incredible profession, Choral Music Education: a vocation that transforms lives. Welcome (back) to the realization that we, the selfless, giving, and caring Choral Music Educators of Southern California make a life-long impact upon the lives of tens of thousands of youth. We do so because we maintain a positive mindset of purpose and conviction despite the significant obstacles we face. We matter, and so do our singers. We are crucial to their well-being, and they are essential to ours. The educational relationship we establish is thus symbiotic. Our diligent, determined work as Choral Music Educators is The Nexus of an immense, fervently dedicated choral music community. We light the choral wildfire in our students, and it emboldens them to do similarly for the remainder of their lives. We are the philosophers, the rebels, the movers, and the shakers. We are America's musical conscience – we foster educated historical awareness, thoughtful philosophical balance, and expansive musical perspective.

Welcome (back) to the 77th spectacular year of the Southern California Vocal Association (Contribute!). Ours is the only local professional organization specifically “dedicated to the advancement of vocal music at all grade levels in the schools of Southern California.” (Communicate!). This year SCVA will sponsor or co-sponsor numerous, invaluable events for tens of thousands of Southern California choral students and teachers: Fall In-Service, High School/Junior High School Honor Choirs, Solo and Ensemble Festival, Young Men's Harmony Festival [with the Masters of Harmony], Diva Day Young Women's Harmony Festival [with the Harborlites Chorus], High School/Junior High School Festivals, Vocal Jazz/A Cappella Festival, and Show Choir Festival (Participate!). This year SCVA will publish at least seven Newsletters, all of which will contain important information about SCVA events as well as interesting, valuable articles about the Choral Art (Speak Up!).

In addition to the publications and comprehensive list of student-centered activities, the SCVA Website offers abundant resources for you the Choral Music Educator. This includes links to other choral music educational sites (including a list of the NAfME K-12 National Performing Arts Standards and political advocacy sites such as Stand Up 4 Music), an inventory of recommended choral octavos for all levels and voicings, past SCVA Newsletters, an updated calendar of SCVA events, the SCVA Membership Directory, Policies, and By Laws (available for download as PDF documents), online registration forms and payment options and more. These highly valuable resources are located within the “Members Only” section. You must register and pay for your dues to gain access to this cache of prized information.

The unbelievably dedicated and caring human beings who voluntarily staff the SCVA Executive Board organize every event listed above, attend numerous meetings, and write all of those Newsletter articles. They are individually and collectively the finest people I know. This is my 12th year as a member of the Executive Board and final year in a second term as your President. Why commit so much time and energy to SCVA? 1.) Choral music has been the center of my life since I stepped into the Choir Room at Monache High School in Porterville, California 40 years ago. It is my duty, honor, and pleasure to give back; 2.) It is extraordinarily rewarding to be a member of the Executive Board and honestly, a whole heap of fun! Every meeting is replete with thoughtful, passionate, and meaningful discussions. The Executive Board cares deeply about the choral art, SCVA, and each SCVA member.

Again, welcome (back) everyone! SCVA is here to provide opportunities for you and your singers. Contribute! Communicate! Participate! Speak Up! Become actively involved in our activities! Recruit others to join us! Become more than a silent partner in the Choral Art of Southern California. Tell us how we can better serve you. Sign up online today because we are you. Let's improve Southern California Choral Music one child at a time.

SCVA High School Regional Honor Choir

Karen Garrett, Vice President, High School Honor Choirs

Crystal Stone, Vice President II, High School Honor Choirs

We are pleased to announce this year's conductors for the SCVA High School Honor Choirs:

Mixed Choir:	Dr. Lynne Gackle, Baylor University
Women's Choir:	Dr. Angel Vazquez Ramos, Cal State Bakersfield
Men's Choir:	Dr. Christopher Peterson, Cal State Fullerton

Students who have participated in SCVA Honor Choirs in the past have regularly cited the experience as musically highly satisfying, deeply inspiring, and even life-changing. Participants will have the unique opportunity of working with some of the most distinguished conductors in our field, and prepare a concert with the most accomplished choral students from Southern California.

Please encourage your eligible high school students to apply to audition for what promises to be an exceptional choral experience. Check out the NEW HONOR CHOIR TAB on the left side of the SCVA website www.scvachoral.org. It is full of helpful information including past sight reading and tonal memory examples to assist in the preparation of your auditioning students.

Below, you will find our condensed version of the Honor Choir Policies and Guidelines as well as important dates and times. Crystal Stone, VP II of Honor Choirs and I wanted to provide you with a quick, one-page "At-A-Glance" for Honor Choir. May I suggest that you copy and distribute these pages for your students? I have auditioning students and their parents initial these pages and return to me to confirm that they understand all information. For a complete and detailed listing of Honor Choir Policies and Guidelines please go to www.scvachoral.org and use the Honor Choir tab on left side.

- Students who must, out of extreme necessity (such as a death in the family or a serious medical problem, or other matter of an equally serious nature) drop out of Honor Choir after being accepted are required to provide a signed, written note from their parents and from their school choral director stating the reasons for the drop out.
- A student must be enrolled in his/her school's choral program in order to be eligible for participation in Honor Choir. Teacher must be a member of SCVA.

Website Update

Mark Freedkin, SCVA Webmaster

High School Honor Choir Audition Application

We are now accepting on-line Audition Applications for this year's High School Honor Choirs. Your students can follow the link on the SCVA Home Page to submit their audition application. To help streamline the process, please ensure that your students to use one consistent e-mail address for you. Then, please remind your students to enter your e-mail address accurately into the on-line application form, or you may receive incomplete or multiple lists of the singers from your school who submitted an audition application when you are asked to Approve those singers.

More About Your E-mail Address

When you register as a Festival Host or Festival Participant, please be sure to use the same e-mail address that you used when you entered or renewed your Annual SCVA Membership. That way, you will be able to view those registrations when you login to the Members-Only page on the website.

Automated E-mail Broadcast Messages

A number of automated e-mail confirmation and broadcast messages are routinely sent from our website to choral directors for various events. Please ensure that your e-mail system can accept incoming messages from "admin@scvachoral.org", so you can receive all of those messages. In some cases, you may need to contact your school district's network administrators to prevent those messages from being incorrectly rejected as SPAM (unsolicited junk e-mail).

Please also be aware that if you simply reply to any of those automated broadcast messages, your response will be sent to me (as webmaster), and I must then forward your message the originator. For more efficient communication, please do not reply directly to any of those messages. Instead, please send your e-mail response directly to the original sender's e-mail address.

THE TIME IS NOW! Don't wait to submit your festival host registration form for Spring 2016!!!

Nancy Ludwig, VPI Festivals

Is summer really over?!?! In sitting down to write this it feels like only a moment ago I was wishing you all a good summer and thanking you for a successful festival season! Yet here we are, beginning again. With so many details to see to in starting the year, thinking about spring festivals can be one of those things we put on the back burner, or table for the next meeting. But it is upon us, and there is no time like the present!

As you begin to plan your choral events for the coming year we would like invite you to consider hosting an SCVA Choral Festival as part of your calendar. SCVA served over 15,000 choral students at over 60 festivals this past spring in Southern California, and four of those were festivals that included a sight-singing component! This type of success is only possible when directors like you generously agree to host a festival.

For those of you who have hosted festivals in the past, we hope you will again consider hosting a festival this year. We would also very much like to add more festivals which include the sight-singing portion, so please contact us if you are considering this and have questions. To those who have considered hosting but have concerns, or maybe haven't thought about hosting a festival, there are many great reasons to host an SCVA Choral Festival:

- Festival hosts receive free festival registration for one choir for each festival you host.
- Your students have the benefit of performing in their own venue, AND you do not have to travel to the festival.
- You can choose a date that works best for you, your school calendar, and your administration.
- You receive support from SCVA in that the organization provides all forms and plaques, schedules adjudicators, and will provide you with contact information for all directors bringing groups to your festival.

This is an excellent opportunity to meet and network with other directors and adjudicators. But most importantly you are helping to provide an opportunity for choirs in your area to perform for one another, hear quality repertoire, and receive feedback from qualified adjudicators, which is an important part of their growth as young choral musicians.

Submit your festival host registration at SCVACHORAL.ORG - deadline is November 1, 2015.

If you are interested in hosting an ELEMENTARY FESTIVAL, or if you have questions about elementary festivals, please email Nancy Ludwig or Melva Morrison.

Please contact us with questions!
